

Presented by Guy Burns in memory of Ann Stocks

PORTRAIT of a SOLE

Queen Victoria Museum

Inveresk, Launceston

1:30 pm

Runtime of 160 minutes including a 20-minute interval

Ann Stocks joined the LWC in the early 1960s, the NWWC in 1964, became secretary that same year, and was the first female club president. In 1976 she was awarded Life Membership.

Backed by images from prominent club members, Ann tells her own story as well as the story of the club's formative years and what bushwalking was like in the 1960s and 1970s.
