Hard track

Starting from Square Rock Car Park, Paddys River, this walk goes through the woodlands of Namadgi National Park to Square Rock and back, passing by Smokers Flat along the way. When you make it to the top, prepare to be dazzled by the colossal rock formations and amazing views over Paddys River region. This walk is particularly gorgeous when snowing, with the chance of seeing beautiful wildflowers pierce through the white blanket. That being said, the cliffs are not fenced so be careful throughout the track. Additionally, the phone signal is close to non-existent, so plan accordingly. Let us begin by acknowledging the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we travel today, and pay our respects to their Elders past and present.

Getting started: From The Square Rock Car Park off Corin Road, pass through the logs used as bollards to join the well formed dirt/ravel track. Head up the constructed steps and follow the track as it leads you into the woodland to continue along Square Rock Track.

Start of an optional side trip: A side trip to Orroral Valley Lookout, which is a good way to make the experience more complete.

Back at the main route ERROR >360 and follow on from the 3.6 km waypoint.
