Moderate track

This short walk follows part of the Ridge Track through the Georges River National Park. The walk follows the first section of the Ridge track before turning down to the Burrawang Flats. From here, the walk follows the driveway and Georges River past a number of picnic areas to return to the start. There are several opportunities for picnics and rest stops along the way. Let us begin by acknowledging the Darug people, Traditional Custodians of the land on which we travel today, and pay our respects to their Elders past and present.

Getting started: From the road, this walk follows the 'Ridge track' sign up the rock steps and up the bush track. The track climbs up and along the side of the ridge until it comes to the intersection of the signposted 'Burrawang Reach' on the left.

At the intersection of Burrawang Reach Road & Ridge Track Start heading along Ridge Track (a walking track).

There is a toilet (about 90 m back from the start).

Find the car park at the start.

After another 270 m veer left, to head along Ridge Track.

After another 50 m continue straight.

After another 40 m turn left, to head along Burrawang Reach Road.

Then pass the toilet (9 m on your right).

After another 140 m pass the BBQ (15 m on your right).

After another 220 m pass the car park (20 m on your right).

About 45 m past the end is "Morgans Creek".

This large, riverside area starts at the intersection of Henry Lawson Drive and The River Road, following the 'Georges River National Park' sign down the driveway, where it passes a large car park for the boat ramp and bends around to the right, continuing along the side of the river with several picnic areas and plenty of open space. There are toilets and taps at the northern end of the reserve, at the car park for the boat ramp.

The end.
